A Deal With The Admin

MinecraftOnlineDotCoom

Summary:

After friend of Lord, HZ, makes a mistake and will soon be banned for it, a deal is made with an admin. In return for a second chance for HZ, Lord will have sex with famous admin Darkrai.

Darkrai was fuming.

HZ, a player he allowed to be in the Discord, just told someone appealing to leave.

It was unacceptable!

He spoke with great fury to the staff about how HZ would be banned promptly, and while most agreed, one voice stuck out against the act.

LordOfTheShadows.

“You can’t ban him for one mistake!” She argued.

“Why not?” Darkrai questioned, “that person could have donated and given us money!”

Lord was dumbstruck. An admin she looked up to was only thinking of greed.

“I think we should wait on the decision for a while.” Zomon said, looking between the two staff members.

A few hours later, Lord walked into the castle of Darkrai, terrified yet determined.

“Darkrai! I’ve come to talk!” Her voice echoed throughout the complex of stone.

A bright form shimmered at the end of a long hall, and Darkrai appeared, floating over to her.

“What is it?” The admin spoke ominously.

“I think,” Lord started, “that you should forgive HZ.”

A fire raged inside the skull of Darkrai, not able to be ordered around by a mere moderator.

“And why is that!?” Darkrai called out, though the target was only a few feet away.

“B–because if you do,” Her voice shook, “I’ll suck your dick.”

Darkrai recoiled. The admin was not used to people coming to him for sex, it was the other way around.

“HZombieMan must be punished for what he did. There is no going around that!” He yelled.

“And he will be punished,” Lord spoke calmly while slowly walking around the levitating admin, “with you giving him a restricted role.”

The admin looked at her, longing for contact. He seemed to consider the offer. “Fine, but if, no, when he messes up, he will be banned.”

He snapped his fingers, and the two were teleported to his God-sized bed, naked.

“Get sucking.” He said, pushed her head on level with his erect penis.

She opened her mouth wide. It was the first time she had sucked dick, and the second time she had sex.

Lord’s warm and wet mouth closed around the head of the Admin’s penis with a slick noise. She bobbed up and down while the admin moaned, laying down, grabbing red sheets with his hands.

It went on for minutes as she released the penis from her velvety mouth, a trail of spit connecting her lips to his cock.

She licked the underside of it, cleaning the cum from several orgasms away as he moaned louder.

“G–god,” Darkrai moaned out, “you’re good at this.”

He came again, and pushed her off, relaxing from her mouth’s ministrations.

As they both lay on the bed panting, Darkrai couldn’t help but admire the Asian’s naked form. His dock became erect again as he looked between her legs to see a shaved, wet pussy.

“If you really want him unbanned. I’m gonna need to enter your cave.” Lord’s eyes opening wide from their closed position, watching Darkrai as his lined up his 4 inch penis with her drenched opening.

Before she could protest, he shoved his dick in her cunt, and started to rock.

It brought veins of pain through her crotch, but after she was done stretching she felt pleasure as he rocked back and forth inside of her body.

The movement continued for perhaps an hour, the lack of orgasm or delay most likely kept by the Admin.

The two of them moaned out incomprehensible moans as they both came at the same time, her cunt muscles clenching his length.

He pulled out of her and watched as his semen erupted onto her stomach from his soaked dick.

“You better get going,” The Admin snapped his fingers and she was fully dressed, “but if HZombieMan messes up again, he’s gone for good.”
